

Erica Mallon is a healthcare-specialized attorney who leads the legal department of American Oncology Network, a nationwide network of community oncology practices. She is one of less than 130 attorneys in Florida to be Board certified in Health Law by The Florida Bar and spends most of her time advising on healthcare fraud and abuse matters, structuring strategic ventures, and effecting mergers and acquisitions of physician practices. Prior to joining AON, Erica was in private practice at an AmLaw 200 firm and served as in-house counsel at an electronic health records vendor and one of the top children's hospitals in the nation.
